Features

Zoostorm 4-4001 Advanced Home Laptop is an amazingly low priced laptop that features Intel's Core Duo Dual Core Technology for advanced mobile applications. Built in wireless 54Mbps LAN is coupled with the superb Core Duo T2300E 1.66Ghz CPU to give you excellent battery life and wireless freedom.

This Laptop is great for anyone who wants dual core mobile home computing on a budget. The Core Duo processor is backed by 1GB DDR2 memory to give you ample power for general home and office applications. This is complimented by an 80GB hard drive and a great DVD+/-RW Double Layer optical drive.

The display on this laptop is a 15.4" widescreen model with a resolution of 1,280x800, perfect for watching DVDs or working on 2 documents side by side. The backlight is excellent and bright, but if you do want to connect this laptop to another monitor it features a DVI socket built in.

The monitor is powered by 256MB ATI Mobility Radeon X1600 which means you can even use this laptop for gaming and using standard settings on Doom 3 for example, you can achieve frame per second rates of around 27, which is extremely playable.

As usual, you will benefit from Zoostorm's award winning build quality and Microsoft Windows XP Home edition is preinstalled for easy set up. This Laptop has everything you will need for advanced home and mobile computing - all for a low price.
